

The Chemistry Of Marriage

Life is too short to be wasted in frustration. You need stability and a destiny helper to face life challenges together. To successfully work in harmony and victory with your chosen spouse, it is important that both of you understand your various assignments and responsibilities. Can I ask you then, what is your assignment as a spouse in your marital journey?

If you are unable to answer the above question succinctly, THE CHEMISTRY OF MARRIAGE will guide you as the author through this book unveils the key secrets of successful and lasting relationships.

Chika Amadi in this book gives insight into important keys to help you build a viral, enjoyable and indestructible marriage. She believes that the fundamental reason why marriages fail is because many couples fail to understand their respective roles coupled with the inability to have a clearly defined line of assignments. Where responsibilities are vague and undefined, conflict is rife, divorce is inevitable. There are basic well thought out responsibilities expected of each couple to make their relationship work including: understanding your assignment, defining your long term expectation of your partner, understanding the bigger picture of your relationship, the place of friendship, character and submission in relationships.

Maria Chika Amadi holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Humanities (History) from Abia State University, Nigerian. She also hold a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Law (LL.B) from Middlesex University, London. She went on to do her Legal Practice Course (LPC) at the University of Law (formerly) College of Law, Bloomsbury London. She is a level 3 OISC accredited Immigration Law practitioner. Together with her husband, Pastor (Barrister) George Amadi, they serve as Senior Pastors of Goodnews Ministries International Church with headquarters in London, The United Kingdom. In 2010, she received the distinguished Service Award of the African Women of Influence category in London. She is a regular speaker at conferences and organizes seminars where she inspires participants on how to cope with life challenges and to build sustainable and indestructible relationships while fulfilling their life purposes. Chika is currently a Councillor at the London Borough of Harrow. Other books by Chika include AGONMA, BREAK YOUR FALLOW GROUND and others. She can be contacted at www.goodnewschurch.net.
